

Exercise 1: Introduction to software architecture

Task 1: Upload profile picture in itslearning

Task 2: Form groups of five persons for the exercises. Use the group registration link under the current lecture.

Task 3: Install .NET and Docker

Task 4: Study the course description and the lesson plan to familiarize yourself with the contents of the course. In the lesson plan you will find references to the literature for the course. The lesson plan will be updated through the course.

Task 5: Discuss the understanding of software architecture and why software architecture is important?

Task 6: Document the main outcome from the discussion in a PowerPoint and give feedback to another group using the feedback criteria.